Reference New York airtel to Director dated 1/4/79.

A review of the Bureau file concerning captioned matter reveals Towers, a British citizen, was indicted by a Federal grand jury, Southern District of New York on 4/12/61, on a five-count violation of the White Slave Traffic Act in connection with procuring girls in London, England for prostitution purposes in the United States. Towers was subsequently arrested and released on $10,000 bond; and thereafter, fled the country. A failure-to-appear bench warrant was issued for his arrest on 5/9/61, in U. S. District Court SDNY.

The file indicates periodic verification of the outstanding process by New York. The last one occurring on 6/7/77 when AUSA [REDACTED] SDNY, stated the bench warrant for Towers was still outstanding and his office intended to prosecute him should he return to this country. The last New York case agent was SA Ambrose W. Conroy.

For information of New York this case initially received extensive press coverage, as one of [REDACTED] was [REDACTED] who was [REDACTED] the Profumo Government sex scandal in England.

Re New York teletype to Director, 11/13/80.

The following investigation was conducted at Niagara Falls, New York:

On 11/13/80, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) Inspector [redacted] was contacted at the Rainbow Bridge, Niagara Falls, New York, and informed of "F-2" stop placed on subject at bridges in Niagara Falls, New York, and Lewiston, New York; and was requested at this time to ignore this stop concerning subject's scheduled crossing from Canada to New York at the Lewiston-Queenston Bridge between the hours of 2:00 PM and 4:00 PM, 11/13/80.

[redacted] advised that he would, in fact, ignore this stop regarding captioned subject this date, and in addition, advised that in order for the stop to be cancelled, it must be done so by the submitting office.

In view of the fact that no further investigation remains at Buffalo, this matter is being placed in an RUC'd status.
